

I served on the U.S.S. South Dakota from December 1943 to December 1945 in the lookout division. My General Quarters was located at the 40mm quad on portside. It was easier for the cooks to get to the portside quad so I was transferred to the starboard side 40 mm quad just a few days before the portside was bombed.

Robert McCullough
S1/C Lookout Div.